

Heather Macre Bio

Heather Macre fights for the people of Arizona every day, emphasizing integrity, transparency, and sustainability. She has represented Maricopa County on the Central Arizona Water Conservation District Board of Directors since getting elected in 2012. Since her election, she has increased public engagement, created the award winning Protect Lake Mead campaign, helped negotiate and finalize the federal and state Drought Contingency Plans, and co-chaired the Power Task Force, which planned a diversified and innovative portfolio including renewable sources.

Heather Macre is also a director in Fennemore, P.C.'s litigation department in Phoenix where her work focuses in the areas of business litigation, healthcare and bankruptcy. Her business clients, ranging from huge multinational companies to small business owners rely on her astute counsel.

In the healthcare arena, Heather's business acumen encompasses all aspects of healthcare agreements and regulatory work, representing hospitals, physician groups, skilled nursing facilities and elder care facilities. She also provides professional representation in licensure and disciplinary proceedings, and in matters concerning HIPAA, Stark/Anti-Kickback and False Claims Act compliance.

In her free time, Heather and her husband Steven are parents to Dorothy and four rescue dogs.
